KABUL - MPs on Monday said a recent decision by President Ashraf Ghani to transfer ministerial budgets, earmarked for construction, to the Ministry of Urban Development and Housing (MoUDH) was unlawful. "If government had such a plan, then why did it not propose it to parliament in the draft budget," said MP Azim Mohseni. Ghani recently issued the order to take the budgets away from 30 departments and give them instead to MoUDH to oversee. MPs however said lawmakers will not endorse such an order and slammed the move as unlawful.

financial and public finance management Act the ministry of finance has the authority to seek amendments to the law," said deputy minister of finance Shafiq Ahmad Qarizada. But, MPs argued that Ghani had violated the law by issuing such an order. "The ... (More on P4)... (11)
