UN Investigation Finds Corruption in Afghan Police Oversight Division

The leadership has not only tolerated corruption, they have facilitated it and, in many instances, participated in it, report says

KABUL - A United Nations-sponsored report has found that Afghanistan government officials who headed the division in charge of the oversight of the police suppressed complaints of corruption against the force and has recommended their dismissal, according to a copy of the document seen by Reuters. The United Nations Development Programme is also investigating why its own division, the Law and Order Trust Fund of Afghanistan (LOTFA), which commissioned ...(More on P4)...(3)

Ghani to Evaluate Performance of Police Chiefs

KABUL - President Mohammad Ashraf Ghani has asked police chiefs he would be satisfied only if people are pleased with their performance, a statement from the Presidential Palace said. Addressing new police chiefs of some provinces, he said: "If you have the support of people you'll have our support as well," the president said this in his meeting with police officials. The meeting was attended by Interior Minister Noor-ul-Haq Uloomi. The president said efforts were on to stop political interference in their duties, he added. "People are watching your actions ...(More on P4)...(4)

Gen. Abdullah Khan Nominated to Head MoD: MP

KABUL - The unity government has evolved consensus on a nominee to head the Ministry of Defence (MoD), a lawmaker has said. Mohammad Nazir Ahmadzai told Pajhwok Afghan News that President Mohammad Ashraf Ghani has revealed this during his meeting with a number of lawmakers recently. "Yesterday, we met with the president and he said that Gen. Abdullah Khan, a former official of the MoD, will be introduced to parliament," he added. "We thanked the president for this initiative. Our demand was that he should introduce a suitable choice as soon as possible for a ...(More on P4)...(5)
