Outlook Horoscope

Aries (Mar. 22-Apr.20)

Although you're already fired-up about your next amazing adventure, positive thinking can only take you so far today. For better or for worse, you are often known for charging ahead prematurely. Unfortunately, temporary satisfaction isn't worth future regret. Rather than making impulsive decisions that will require correcting your course as you go, contemplate your alternatives now without initiating direct action.

Taurus (Apr.21-May 20)

You might have overindulged yesterday, which is understandable considering how much fun you had. Although you wish you could extend the high spirits of the holidays, all good things must come to an end. There's nothing wrong with continuing to enjoy the positive vibes as long as you take time to recharge your energy and regroup your thoughts.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Levity still lingers in the air and although you're probably exhausted, you don't want the good times to end. Brand new hopes and dreams are tugging at your awareness, like children's toys waiting to be opened and enjoyed. You may feel like there's nothing stopping you from pursuing your ambitious goals, but you're uncertain of which move to make next. Regardless of whether you know the steps or not, you don't want to miss this dance with the cosmos.

Cancer (June 21-July 20)

Yesterday's heartwarming gatherings are still so fresh in your mind that they don't even seem like memories yet. An ingenious new slant on your goals renews your faith in the universe. However, your solid assumptions may be more illusory now than you realize. Although you want to get started on your plans right away, it's best to take time to rest before you try to incorporate a fresh set of ideals.

Leo (July 21-Aug. 21)

You are still basking in the afterglow of yesterday's festivities as you look to the future with renewed enthusiasm. You're excited to share your ambitious ideas with everyone, but be careful not to talk so dramatically that it's impossible to live up to your own expectations. The good news is you feel ready to go.

Virgo (Aug. 22-Sep 22)

Recent interactions with friends or family reactivate old dreams which are now taking new flight. Shocking revelations inspire you to swing into action. However, others may not be ready to give your unorthodox plans the green light. People are quick to put their faith in your abilities, but they need tangible evidence before they will be comfortable supporting your venture. Do your research prior to starting a new quest.

Libra (Sep 23-Oct. 22)

You're likely to wake up smiling just thinking about recent events. Inspiring conversations replay in your mind, galvanizing you to put your ideas into motion. However, don't take on too much work right away. Although you think you can move forward immediately, you may encounter stop signs at every corner. Don't waste energy attempting to outsmart the cosmos.

Scorpio (Oct.23-Nov.22)

Although you might be recovering from a little too much holiday merriment today, you could discover that the recesses of your mind contain unexamined treasures. You feel like you're on the brink of something huge and the adventurous Sagittarius Moon impels you to fully invest yourself into this new enterprise.

Sagittarius (Nov.23-Dec.20)

Your imagination is flowing with creative ideas that you are longing to express. The Moon in your inspirational sign encourages you to reach for the stars, but it's wise to make sure you are standing on solid ground first. Assess the stability and integrity of your foundation before you proceed one step further toward your goal. Aim high but pack some common sense for the journey. You can do anything, but you can't do everything.

Capricorn (Dec.21-Jan19)

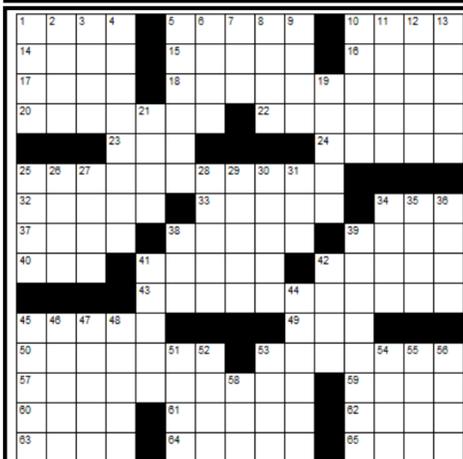

Optimistic daydreams of achieving success keep you busy today. You're anxious to jump into the tasks at hand as long as they lead to manifesting your goals. Nevertheless, you may find that it's more challenging than you thought to wrap your head around what needs to happen next. Prior to making a definitive move, take extra time to explore your dreams and see where they lead. As Author Beth Mende Conny writes.

Aquarius (Jan 20-Feb.18)

Visions of distant lands inspire you to set off on a new expedition as soon as you can pull on your coat. Although the travel bug may bite you, make sure you don't overextend your resources. You might not be as ready for a new adventure as you think; recent celebrations extracted a toll on your body, whether you realize it yet or not. Consider taking a mental journey to satisfy your craving instead.

Pisces (Feb.19-Mar.20)

It's all too easy to be swept up in the holiday revelry and feel exhilarated about your future prospects. Although these past few days may have been hectic, it's emotionally healing to connect with the people you love. A new cycle of regeneration is beginning, but all things need nurturing to grow. Let your mind pave the way now so your physical self can follow later. Robert Louis Stevenson wrote.
