

In Nangarhar, Taliban Keeping a Watch on Schools

JALALABAD - Some provincial council members say the Taliban are keeping a watch on government-run schools in remote areas in eastern Nangarhar province. Education officials also confirm Taliban's supervision of government schools, saying the outlawed insurgent group's action is helping improve the system. Ajmal Omar, a local representative from Khogyani district, says the fighters keep an eye on teachers' performance in far-flung areas. He adds the Taliban regularly visit schools with attendance sheets. The teachers staying away from classes are marked absent. The practice is ongoing in the Hesarak, Sherzad and Khogyani and other districts, where the militants have a strong presence, according to Omar. A tribal elder from Sherzad district confirmed to Pajhwok the guerrillas regularly kept an eye on schools in far-flung neighbourhoods. He hailed the Taliban action to observe education system because according to Jafar schools better performed in areas where government had little control. ### Outlook Horoscope

Aries (Mar. 22-Apr.20)

There's simply no time to beat around the bush today because you couldn't fit another task in edgewise if you tried. You're finally sorting out kinks in your day-to-day life that sometimes get neglected due to other priorities, and the sensible Virgo Moon's trine to powerful Pluto injects passionate drive into your plans. You're convinced that you can finish everything if you just keep plodding ahead.

Taurus (Apr.21-May 20)

You're trying to keep track of all the little things you agreed to do today, and your head is spinning before you know it. Once you think about the plethora of projects you want to manage, you realize how much there is to do and how little time there is available. It's overwhelming to look at a million puzzle pieces strewn about; identify which pieces go together easily and you can make more progress.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

You notice there are plenty of loose ends to tie up around the house today. The drudgery of chores may not be very exciting, but cleaning your physical space can be imagined as a parallel to cleaning your mental space. The dutiful Virgo Moon urges you to roll up your sleeves and knock out domestic tasks while a favorable connection to powerhouse Pluto deepens your investment in creating a healthy environment.

Cancer (June 21-July 20)

There's no time to slow down as your list grows longer by the minute. It feels as if you don't have a choice but to add another errand to your agenda. However, there are only so many hours in a day and so much gas in your tank. The obedient Virgo Moon nudges you toward compliance, but an awkward connection between mental Mercury and wounded Chiron reminds you that sometimes words aren't enough.

Leo (July 21-Aug. 21)

There is more than enough to keep you busy as you embark on an organizational binge. The satisfaction of completing one project after another can become addicting, motivating you to stick your finger in even more pies. You may be led to believe that your self-worth is dependent on your accomplishments as the virtuous Virgo Moon travels through your 2nd House of Assets.

Virgo (Aug. 22-Sep 22)

You may be obsessive about setting things right, and others might just stay out of your way for fear of being alphabetized right along with your files. Your desire to catalogue and coordinate every detail is admirable, but life cannot always be color-coded with all its shades of gray. Your key planet Mercury exchanges an unpleasant glance with healer Chiron in your 7th House of Relationships, reminding you that not everything can be calculated.

Libra (Sep 23-Oct. 22)

An elusive mental itch grows stronger, and although it's difficult to pinpoint, this anxiety is pervasive in its ability to keep you on edge. Finding the right words to express what you mean doesn't come easily, but a solution may be closer than you think. Spending some time alone will help clear your mind today, even if it's just a few minutes of fresh air. Ironically, tapping into your feelings clarifies your thoughts.

Scorpio (Oct.23-Nov.22)

You may be wondering why you thought you could squeeze so many activities into your schedule today. Social engagements begin to feel like obligations when you stack too many on top of each other. Something will have to give for you to be able to truly enjoy the time you allotted to spending with your friends.

Sagittarius (Nov.23-Dec.20)

You're not interested in settling for anything less than perfection today, and you're not afraid to tell everyone. You wouldn't want anyone to think you couldn't accomplish something, so you keep pretending you can handle it in an attempt to save your reputation. However, others probably aren't dissecting your every move, and it's pointless to try to prove yourself to people who aren't paying as much attention as you think.

Capricorn (Dec.21-Jan19)

You always like to be prepared, which is why it's comforting to take the time to do your due diligence. However, what begins as covering your bases may turn into an unnerving number of prerequisites you believe you must accomplish before your next big move. However, you're so invested in your future that you may not know when to call it quits.

Aquarius (Jan 20-Feb.18)

You prefer facts over abstractions today, but deep emotions complicate your quest to set things straight. Sometimes feelings aren't linear or logical, especially when it comes to relationships. The meticulous Virgo Moon stirs up your 8th House of Intimacy, urging you to get into the nitty-gritty logistics of your emotional commitments. The further you delve, the less your rational mind is in charge.

Pisces (Feb.19-Mar.20)

You want to wait on a special someone hand and foot, but eventually there comes a point when it's impractical. Nevertheless, you somehow still think you can fulfill all their needs and yours in the space of a day. At some point, you must accept your limits and realize that it doesn't reflect badly on you as a person if you can't juggle everything at once. If you slow down long enough to get out of your head.
