Outlook Horoscope

Aries (Mar. 22-Apr.20)

A brief retreat from the front lines for a dose of renewal and recharging is exactly what the doctor ordered. The Sun's shift into peaceful Pisces illuminates your 12th House of Spirituality, prompting you to escape into your cozy cave for a break from the mundane world. You may think letting go of all your responsibilities is the best way to reconnect with your spiritual center but, truthfully.

Taurus (Apr.21-May 20)

The spirit of community warms your heart as you think fondly about your circle of friends. You appreciate being part of such a fun group and you hope to spend more time giving back some of the joy you receive. The compassionate Pisces Sun shines a light on your 11th House of Social Networking for the next four weeks, encouraging you to cultivate stronger bonds of friendship.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

You're galvanized to move into a period of manifestation where your lofty ambitions become undeniably real. The Sun's shift into idealistic Pisces puts the spotlight on your 10th House of Profession, inspiring you to visualize exactly where you hope to be in your career. The more you polish your idea of success, the closer you get to making it a reality. Sharing your aspirations with a trusted friend can

You tend to favor the comfort and safety of the familiar, but something stirs your desire to see more of the world now. Whether you decide to travel the globe or just feed your imagination with a captivating learning adventure, the possibilities seem endless. Honestly, it doesn't matter if your journeys take you outward or inward; you will get even more out of them if you incorporate your findings into your regular routine.

Leo (July 21-Aug. 21)

Cancer (June 21-July 20)

You feel a tug on your heartstrings that draws you into a reverie of pure love and trust. The Sun's move into surreal Pisces brightens your 8th House of Intimacy, urging you to surrender to the kind of connection that seems to transcend ordinary relationships. However, the extravagant Sagittarius Moon reminds you that you don't need to completely give up your individuality.

Virgo (Aug. 22-Sep 22)

Your focus shifts to your closest relationships and how to emotionally connect with the ones near and dear to you. You're prompted to reevaluate your expectations of love and friendship as the Sun swims into empathetic Pisces and your 7th House of Partnerships. Injecting more sensitivity into your interactions enables you to better consider the feelings of others while attempting to bridge the distance between you.

Libra (Sep 23-Oct. 22)

All the late nights and fun times start to catch up with you and you need to turn your attention to your health. The Sun moves into healing Pisces and your 6th House of Well-Being, inspiring you to reassess the habits that are the building blocks of your normal routine. It's all too tempting to fly on autopilot and let time slip away when you could be developing patterns to support a more healthful existence.

Scorpio (Oct.23-Nov.22)

A new phase is beginning in which your creativity takes the lead. It's the perfect time for exploring artistic pursuits or reconnecting with a childhood activity that brings you joy. The Sun's annual four-week glide through mystical Pisces accentuates your 5th House of Self-Expression, provoking you to pour your heart into a passion project.

Sagittarius (Nov.23-Dec.20)

You may opt to stay home more often over the next four weeks as the Sun takes up residence in your 4th House of Domesticity. Reconnecting with your roots provides restorative healing for your heart. Nevertheless, it feels like the only thing that truly matters is getting in touch with the collective. However, the questing Moon in your sign reminds you to celebrate yourself as a piece of the whole without having to merge into oneness and out of reality.

Capricorn (Dec.21-Jan19)

Your drive to achieve often compels you to take control of situations to ensure the best chance at success. However, a turn of the tide inspires you to adopt a more flexible approach. The Sun's shift into gentle Pisces highlights your 3rd House of Information, putting you in a place to be more receptive to messages rather than only pushing your point forward.

Aquarius (Jan 20-Feb.18)

Your eclecticism is apparent in the way you dress as you choose to reflect your individuality in most purchases. The Sun makes its entrance into whimsical Pisces and your 2nd House of Material Things, seducing you with the allure of a few unique pieces to add to your collection. If you're not careful, you might find more creative ways to spend than save.

Pisces (Feb.19-Mar.20)

Wipe the slate clean and start celebrating your birthday month. The radiant Sun moves into your sign, prompting your annual review of where you've been and where you're going. It's time to get back in touch with your dreams so you can set ambitious goals. Manage your expectations wisely, since it's easy to drift through the next four weeks in a haze of possibilities that could only serve to bewilder you help prevent you from getting stuck in the dreaming phase.
