Outlook Horoscope

Aries (Mar. 22-Apr.20)

Listening to the voice of reason isn't easy today as relationship tension tugs at your heartstrings. Unfortunately, your words are more inflammatory than you realize, especially if you impulsively open your mouth before considering anyone else's feelings. Thankfully, you can reduce the negative impact of your rash reaction by simply remembering to be respectful of other people's perspectives.

Taurus (Apr.21-May 20)

You Bulls are quick to dig in your hooves and get ready for battle if you feel your stability is being threatened. You might even be provoked to fight back in order to maintain possession of what you assume is yours. Unfortunately, your opinions can magically turn into facts now. You could begin to believe them so intensely that you're unable to hear anyone's contrasting viewpoint.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Since you are usually the first one to change your mind, others may be caught off guard if you stick with a specific action plan even when better alternatives become available. You're attracted to complex entanglements now because you want to experience the deep emotions that usually slip through your fingers. Happily, unbridled inspiration accompanies you on your journey today.

Cancer (June 21-July 20)

You may need to stand up to people who refuse to give you what you want today. You might even feel personally attacked by someone who accuses you of using your vulnerability to get your way. Letting down your guard and sharing your true feelings is challenging when you think it's safer to keep your desires hidden.

Leo (July 21-Aug. 21)

Your peers will either follow your lead today or just step out of your way because your positive attitude is so unflappable. No one can talk you into taking a different path if you already know where you're going and how you're getting there. Thankfully, you can accomplish more than you expect if you remain methodical in your approach now. Nevertheless, being obsessed with the details is counterproductive.

Virgo (Aug. 22-Sep 22)

You may be preoccupied with wanting to have fun today and will do nearly anything to keep your social plans from falling apart. However, playing the role of a drill sergeant and telling people what to do isn't the most effective management style. Relaxing your grip on the reins of control contributes to a more pleasant and productive day for everyone. Leaving a bit of room for the element of surprise can make all the difference in the world.

Libra (Sep 23-Oct. 22)

Although you're not typically emotionally volatile, powerful desires can build until the pressure becomes unbearable today. A dramatic event in a relationship could rattle your cage; however, the stress won't lead to a volcanic meltdown if you stay on top of your feelings throughout the day. Calm your nerves with exercise, meditation or creative expression.

Scorpio (Oct.23-Nov.22)

There's no place in your life for passive behavior today; letting circumstances develop until you lose control is not a viable strategy. In fact, cosmic forces prompt you into action now, whether or not you are ready for the engagement. Clearly express what you want without issuing any ultimatums or placing expectations on anyone else.

Sagittarius (Nov.23-Dec.20)

You often enjoy the excitement of a little chaos and confusion, but nearly everything seems up for grabs today. You may not feel as if you're in control of your destiny, and you can't yet put your finger on where the current changes are leading you. Paradoxically, it might appear that your choices are narrowing at the very same time. But don't act out of desperation even if you are committed to making magic happen now.

Capricorn (Dec.21-Jan19)

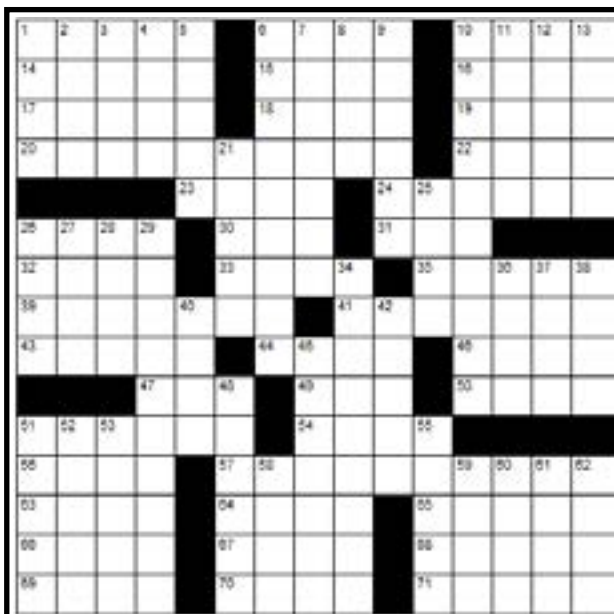

You are tired of sitting around waiting for someone else to get the ball rolling. You are running low on patience today and you might choose to handle your frustration by striking out on your own, leaving everyone else to fend for themselves. Be prepared to forge ahead if you want to make progress now, but it's advisable to remember the wisdom of moderated self-restraint.

Aquarius (Jan 20-Feb.18)

Bringing an unfinished project to its proper conclusion makes room for exciting new opportunities. However, anything that remains incomplete now will likely haunt you for weeks to come. Your next venture demands your full concentration which means that you can't drag your old baggage around much longer. But don't waste time wondering about what the future holds in store for you.

Pisces (Feb.19-Mar.20)

A complex emotional issue that's been quietly brewing within a relationship or a group of friends may need to be brought out into the open today. The expression of hidden emotions is a good first step in a healthy process of honest dialogue, even if the information revealed isn't what's expected. Banish all fears and suspicions before they creep into the mix; rather than withdrawing in denial.
