KABUL - The security forces have arrested a number of individuals after the Ministry of Interior released a list of criminals containing 222 names who are under the pursuit of the security institutions in connection to various criminal charges. Mol officials are saying that the security forces have arrested at least eight of the individuals since last evening. The officials further added that the suspects have been rounded up by the detective and security forces with the support of the residents of the city. In the meantime, Najib Danish, a spokesman for the Ministry of Interior has said that the ministry will release further lists of criminals in the near future. In a statement posted online, Danish has said the future lists would contain names of influential figures with governmental and political ties as well as those who are using the government facilities to disrupt the security. Danish has also warned that the police forces would block the bank accounts of the suspected criminals and bar their family members from leaving the country if they did not clear their cases with the government. # Takhar Women Stage Protest Against Election Rigging

KABUL - Afghan spinner Mujeeb Rahman has helped Brisbane Heat break their victory drought in the ongoing Big Bash League (BBL) in Australia. A superb bowling spell from the gritty teenager saw his side trounce the Perth Scorchers by five wickets in their fourth match, according to the website ESPN Cricinfo. With his magical spin, Mujeeb stunned the Scorchers' top order after they were asked to bat first. He captured two wickets, conceding only 10 in four overs. Ashton Turner made 47 from 30 balls to give some respectability to Scorchers' total. Then Nathan Coulter-Nile captured three wickets to give Scorchers a chance. However, Ben Cutting and Joe Burns batted ruthlessly to see the Heat dry end home, with 10 balls to spare. The win saw the Heat rise from the bottom of the table. As they took on the Scorchers on Saturday, the Heat badly needed a win after three losses. Mujeeb, the main difference between the two teams, delivered for his skipper Chris Lynn claiming the big wicket of Mitch Marsh. Elated by his role in Heat's triumph, Mujeeb said: "I'm very excited to be named Player of the Match. I'm very excited. I am really enjoying it very much..." (Pajhwok)

White House Not Too Concerned About Trump's Remarks

KABUL - A close aide has downplayed hostile reactions to President Donald Trump's recent remarks about the 1979 Soviet invasion of Afghanistan. Mick Mulvaney, Trump's acting chief of staff, said he was "not too concerned about the details" of the Afghanistan-related comments by the president on Wednesday. During a cabinet meeting, Trump slammed America's ongoing war in Afghanistan, and made bizarre statements on the Soviet actions in the country. Russia, India and Pakistan should take on a proactive role in resolving the ongoing conflict between the Taliban, and the Afghan government, Trump suggested. In an interview to CNN on Sunday, Mulvaney was asked about the presidential defence of the Soviet invasion, which the US has consistently denounced as an act of brazen aggression. In response, Trump's chief of staff said: "I think those are comments the president made born out of frustration from where we are and I'm not too concerned about the details," The official dismissed host Jake Tapper's suggestion that Trump's comments on Afghanistan were verifiably inaccurate. He added: "I have seen every single piece of information that goes onto the Resolute Desk, I have seen every single piece of information that goes to his residency at night, and I have not seen anything objectionable." Like the mainstream US media, the Afghan government, former ministers and diplomats have also hit out at Trump's retelling of the conflict. (Pajhwok)

Outlook Horoscope

Aries (Mar. 22-Apr.20)

There may be some serious miscommunication today, so be honest in all your dealings, Aries. Be as straightforward as possible, since issues can backfire if the truth is clouded. Honesty is invaluable and must be maintained at all times. You have the power to make a lasting impression on people. Curb your tendency to snap at others.

Taurus (Apr.21-May 20)

You may not be sure what to think today, Taurus. Mental confusion could be the day's theme for you, but don't let it get you down. Realize that if's just one of those days when none of the pieces fit right. The truth is that they do fit somewhere, just not now. Lay low and wait for this phase to pass. Things will pick up soon as the fog lifts and you can see clearly again.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Spiritual concerns are a bigger issue for you today, Gemini. You may have found that you're drawn to a fanciful mindset and unorthodox way of viewing the world. Pursue this realm of thought and trust that your intuition knows exactly where to take you. Emotional tension may run high, so try not to get down on other people's "me first" attitude.

Cancer (June 21-July 20)

Does it seem like your life is pulling apart at the seams, Cancer? Perhaps it's time to reevaluate. Major aspects of your being could be coming into question and you can't seem to find the answer to why you started down this road in the first place. Have confidence in yourself and your incredible ability to cut to the core of every matter.

Leo (July 21-Aug. 21)

There's an extra bit of fire in your words and emotions today, Leo. Your sensitivity is heightened and you should consider doing some sort of volunteer work now. You may talk about saving the world, but talk will get you nowhere until you put those ideas into practice. Take part in the lives of people who are less fortunate and seek the truth in all the issues you encounter.

Virgo (Aug. 22-Sep 22)

There may be serious challenges in your daily routine today, Virgo. How can you organize your day more efficiently? Take time to set a plan into motion. Write it down. You may want to drift into another realm, so let those emotions roam free - just make sure you deal with your daily tasks first. This will give you more freedom to take advantage of the blast of creative power that you have now.

Libra (Sep 23-Oct. 22)

You may feel idealistic today, Libra. This is fine, but make sure these ideals are rooted in reality or they may be nothing more than a pipe dream. Feel free to escape to another mindset, but make sure you can still discern what's real and what isn't. This is a formative time for you in which you realize that the conventional ways of doing things aren't working anymore.

Scorpio (Oct.23-Nov.22)

Your dreams and fantasies are more real than you know, Scorpio. Smile at the people you pass and watch them smile back. Your sensitive and fun-loving nature is infectious. Use it to help heal others' wounds. Laughter is the remedy that cures all. Be conscious of your tremendous effect on others and spread the beauty that lives inside you.

Sagittarius (Nov.23-Dec.20)

Your sensitivity is especially heightened today, Sagittarius. You're in tune with your emotions and more sensitive to your dreams. Realize the importance of friendship and show someone you care by initiating an outing or intimate dinner at your home. You have greater self-awareness, as well as the energy to get things done. Fantasy worlds may come to life if you let them. Watch out for overindulgence.

Capricorn (Dec.21-Jan19)

You may be going through a confusing period now, Capricorn. Today's energy brings these issues into focus. Parts of your life seem to be slapping you in the face, indicating that a drastic life change is coming. Resist the urge to play the victim and let other people grab the reins simply because they act more confidently. This is your life and only you know what's best for you.

Aquarius (Jan 20-Feb.18)

Spiritual concerns and fanciful daydreams move into sharp focus today, Aquarius. Perhaps you're pulled by playful emotions and escapism. Keep one foot on the ground while you send your mind into the clouds, but definitely take time to check the air up there and report your findings to your conscious self. You may feel a greater sensitivity toward others now while your intuition is strong.

Pisces (Feb.19-Mar.20)

Have you taken someone for granted lately? Today you should give them the thanks and attention they deserve, Pisces. Your sensitivity and psychic awareness are especially strong. You aren't in the mood to put up with superficialities. Stick with what is real and say it like it is. Tension in your daily life may surface, but if you have things under control, you will ride through it just fine.
