Ghani Beats School Bell, Vows to Boost Education

KABUL - President Mohammad Ashraf Ghani on Tuesday vowed to boost education and literacy rate in Afghanistan.

"The government is determined to utilize all ways and means to boost education, improve education system and increase the rate of literacy in Afghanistan," said President Ghani in his address to inaugurate new educational year.

Both the government entities and citizens should work in harmony to support education in the country, the president said. He also called upon parents to help government in boosting education and increasing literacy rate in the country by sending their children to school.

The government would bolster the professionalism of teachers to provide qualitative teaching to students in school, the president stressed. President ...(More on P4)...(1)

Nicholson, Raheel Confer on Afghan Peace Drive

KABUL - The Resolute Support mission's commander and the Pakistan Army chief have conferred on the current situation in Afghanistan, including the reconciliation drive.

Gen. John Mick Nicholson, on his maiden trip to Pakistan, met Chief of Army Staff (COAS) Gen. Raheel Sharif on Monday at the General Headquarters (GHQ) in the garrison town of Rawalpindi. A statement from the military said: "Matters of mutual interest and regional security, with particular emphasis on coordination along the Pak-Afghan border and reconciliation process in Afghanistan, were discussed."

A veteran with multiple deployments to Afghanistan, Nicholson commanded the US ...(More on P4)...(2)

Iran, Afghanistan Underline Expansion of all-out Ties

TEHRAN - Iranian President Hassan Rouhani and his Afghan counterpart Ashraf Ghani in a phone conversation explored avenues for the further development of relations and cooperation in all fields. During the conversation, Ghani congratulated President Rouhani and the Iranian government and nation on the advent of the Iranian new year (started on March 20).

He also emphasized Iran's important role in the region, and asked for the further expansion of bilateral ties and mutual cooperation. Ghani prayed God Almighty ...(More on P4)...(3)

Pakistan Arrests Mullah Rasool

ISLAMABAD - Pakistani authorities arrested Mullah Mohammad Rasool, chief of the dissident faction of the Afghan Taliban, revealed internal sources from the armed movement.

I can confirm that Mullah Rasool has been arrested by the security forces in this country after crossing the border, said a Taliban leader to The Express Tribune.

The information was also confirmed by a leader in Rasool's faction, appointed in November as head of the Mullah Akhtar Mansoor adversaries, who emerged as the highest Taliban authority after the announcement of the death of Mullah Omar.

None of the two sources said the date of Rasool arrest, but they explained that he left Afghanistan after the offensive from Mansoor supporters.

The latter ordered dissidents to attack in Zabul province. During the clashes, dozens of militants were killed, including the second of Rasool, Mullah Mansoor-Dadullah.

For this reason, the leaders of the faction opposed to the new Taliban ...(More on P4)...(4)

Pakistan Steps Underway to Boost Trade with Afghanistan

PESHAWAR - Pakistan is trying to remove infrastructural and procedural hurdles in the way of trade with and investment in Afghanistan, a minister said on Monday. Pakistani Commerce Minister Khurram Dastgir Khan said Pakistan was looking at ways of enhancing trade volume with Afghanistan. Bilateral trade would be doubled in coming years, he hoped. The minister made the remarks while addressing a roundtable on 'Pakistan-Afghanistan Cooperation on Trade', organized by Institute of Strategic Studies Islamabad (ISSI) in Islamabad. He said the government envisioned ...(More on P4)...(5)

Noor, Dostum Loyalists Stage Rallies in Balkh

MAZAR-I-SHARIF - Hundreds of supporters of Balkh Governor Atta Mohammad Noor and Vice-President Abdul Rashid Dostum rallied in support of their leaders in Mazar-i-Sharif, the provincial capital, on Tuesday.

Tensions flared up after the removal of Dostum's portraits from billboards in the city by some unidentified persons. The portraits, however, were displayed again by government officials.

On his Facebook page, Noor wrote: ...(More on P4)...(6)

Europe May Deport 80,000 Afghan Asylum-Seekers

KABUL - Under a secret plan, more than 80,000 Afghans may be deported from Europe in the near future, a leading British newspaper reported on Tuesday.

If the Afghan government does not agree to the mass repatriation of failed asylum-seekers, the European Commission may threaten it with a drastic cut in aid -- about 40 per cent of the country's GDP. According to The Guardian, the Afghan elite will be rewarded with university places in Europe as part of an explicit EU strategy to use ...(More on P4)...(8)

'Afghanistan Facing Water Mismanagement Not Shortage'

KABUL - The Minister of Agriculture and Livestock on Tuesday expressed his concern over water management and said currently 45 percent of the country's rivers' water was being wasted before reaching crops.

Asadullah Zamir, addressing a conference marking the International Water Day, recent photos captured from the air showed over 9.5 million of the country's land was suitable for cultivation and out of which 500,000 hectares could be irrigated compared to two million hectares currently being irrigated.

According to his ministry, 70 percent of agricultural products are obtained ...(More on P4)...(9)

Senate Retreat in Helmand Was Tactical

KABUL - Senior security officials said on Tuesday security forces had staged a "tactical retreat" from some areas in southern Helmand province, assuring the Taliban would not be able to overrun the restive province.

The security situation in Helmand deteriorated after heavy clashes between security forces and the insurgents broke out. The Taliban, who have laid siege to Marja district, are currently in control of Baghran, Dishu, Musa Qala, Khanshin and Nawzad districts of Helmand over the past four years. On Tuesday, the Meshrano Jirga summoned top security officials to brief the upper house about ...(More on P4)...(7)

Afghan Traders Sign $2.38m Deals during Gulfood Show

KABUL - Afghan traders signed a series of deals worth $2.38 million for agricultural products in the Gulfood show in Dubai, the USAID said on Tuesday.

The traders are negotiating potential deals of about $10 million following their participation in the exhibition, the world's largest annual food and hospitality event, held from February 21 to 25.

The USAID supported Afghanistan's participation in 2015 Gulfood, allowing thousands of international buyers to learn about the country's pomegranates, saffron, apples, apricots, melons, grapes, nuts and raisins. Mahmood, marketing ...(More on P4)...(10)
