Outlook Horoscope

Aries (Mar. 22-Apr.20)

You're on an adventure today with a blank slate and an eye to the future. Everything seems to be moving forward according to your best-case scenario. Nevertheless, a cloud of uncertainty slowly creeps in during the day, making you wonder if you made the right choice. But self-doubt isn't helpful now, even if a mist settles in and obscures the path ahead.

Taurus (Apr.21-May 20)

There are thoughts swirling around in your head that need to be spoken aloud, but you can't seem to find your voice today. Don't let your self-criticism run away with your good intentions simply because it's not the best time to speak your mind. Rather than thinking less of yourself for putting off the inevitable, honor the wisdom of your intuition.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

It's to your advantage to let go of something that isn't working in your favor today so it can morph into something new. Your perceptions deepen as the Moon slips into your 8th House of Regeneration. You're standing at the edge of an abyss and the weight of excess emotional baggage can pull you down. Fortunately, shedding the restraints of the past allows you to transform your story and create an ending of your own creation.

Cancer (June 21-July 20)

You're not sure you can take someone's words at face value today because you don't trust your own interpretation of what you hear. You might even put up defenses if you think that others are trying to mislead you. Although intentional misdirection is unlikely, it is possible that your coworkers have an agenda now that's quite different from yours.

Leo (July 21-Aug. 21)

Although just yesterday you were confident you knew where you were going, you might grow suspicious of your own logic today. As many times as you run through your analysis, your conclusions are still fuzzy. Nevertheless, you possess enough common sense to stick to your regular routine. When in times of uncertainty, it helps to maintain consistent patterns.

Virgo (Aug. 22-Sep 22)

Normally, the most logical approach to a problem brings the best answers. Ironically, creative thinking is your most reliable path to sound decisions today. However, solutions grow more complicated as soon as other people are added to the equation. Unfortunately, you cannot just go off on your own now; you must convey your ideas to an interested audience for them to have any lasting value. Choose your words with care.

Libra (Sep 23-Oct. 22)

Everyone seems extra demanding today and you don't appreciate it, especially if you feel like the target of their aggression. Nevertheless, people who thought you might be a pushover are in for a rude surprise. Fortunately, you're quite capable of defending your boundaries now, even if you prefer not to waste energy on any sort of conflict when collaboration is much more productive.

Scorpio (Oct.23-Nov.22)

Talking about your work routine may not be your favorite activity, but you have something that must be communicated today or the opportunity will pass. Although maintaining a consistent method helps you to be efficient in your endeavors, you might want to shake the procedures up now.

Sagittarius (Nov.23-Dec.20)

Finding the most direct way to express what's in your heart sounds like an admirable intention, but you won't likely think through the consequences of your conversations before they end. Your words often inspire others to focus on their spiritual practices. However, people might not believe your emotional declarations now because they can't get beyond their own limited perspectives.

Capricorn (Dec.21-Jan19)

You're not afraid to let everyone know exactly how you feel today. However, there is a funny gap between your mind and your mouth; the words don't come out the same way you hear them inside your head. You might be better off now reciting poetry or singing a song, instead of attempting to be so precise in the delivery of your message.

Aquarius (Jan 20-Feb.18)

You believe you're breaking new ground, discussing ideas that others have never heard. Your message may be like a breath of fresh air, but you could become so excited that your overactive imagination wrests control from your rational mind. Accurate communication is impossible if you're relying on myths and symbols instead of facts and figures.

Pisces (Feb.19-Mar.20)

You're in your element today as you swim through the seas of consciousness. Although you are in touch with the twilight regions of your imagination, it's tough to put your experiences into words. In fact, the mythic realms contain powerful magic that enriches your life, but it also eludes the limitations of language. Finding other ways to express your feelings.
