Outlook Horoscope

Aries (Mar. 22-Apr.20)

The clock is ticking and it feels as if you're running out of time. You're eager to make your mark and might believe that you must do it today. Nevertheless, nothing will be gained by spontaneously pushing buttons just to get a response from someone else. Observe your anxiety without allowing it to trigger unpremeditated action. Even George S. Patton cautioned, "Take calculated risks."

Taurus (Apr.21-May 20)

The big picture becomes crystal clear today, but that doesn't mean it's time to initiate action just yet. The fact is that imagining your success is more important than starting the next phase of your journey. Your planning process might lead you to make significant adjustments to your overall strategy. Don't try to push the river any faster than it's currently flowing.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

You have counted on your friends and coworkers to pull you out of a few difficult places in the past few weeks and, luckily, you haven't been disappointed. Although their support remains solid, it's wise to shift your reliance from external sources to your own inner counsel now. You might not give yourself enough credit for the wisdom that you've accrued.

Cancer (June 21-July 20)

You may need to stand up for yourself today, especially if someone with a desire for power thinks you're in his or her way. Your best strategy is to lay your cards on the table, even if you are misinterpreting the situation. It's healthier to clear the air than to harbor resentment over something that doesn't even exist.

Leo (July 21-Aug. 21)

You have many interesting ideas running through your brain, but they are not necessarily realistic ones. Your mind is still being fueled by exciting fantasies and wonderful possibilities but the energy is starting to shift today. You're being required to find your way back down to Earth where pragmatism is your most important concern. Instead of pursuing fun and games, think

Virgo (Aug. 22-Sep 22)

You're ready to go the distance today, even if your destination turns out to be much farther than you thought. The good news is you never expected success to be handed to you on a silver platter. Although you've been preparing for this opportunity for a long time, you're still committed to doing whatever hard work is necessary to reach your goal. Baseball manager Tommy Lasorda said, "The difference between the impossible and the possible lies

Libra (Sep 23-Oct. 22)

They say that home is where the heart is and today you carry your heart into every conversation. Nevertheless, you're still likely to hide your feelings because you don't want them to complicate the difficult emotional issues that are already on your plate. Relationships -- even those that are normally quite stable -- seem to be precariously balanced on an edge.

Scorpio (Oct.23-Nov.22)

It's probably pointless for anyone to start an argument with you today because you'll win it, even if you're wrong. You have a ruthless sense of determination that won't allow you to back down once engaged in a conflict. However, a minor disagreement over a trivial matter could escalate into full-on warfare that turns everyone into a loser.

Sagittarius (Nov.23-Dec.20)

Your practical plan is on point today, especially if you're plotting ways to get further ahead in your career. The possibility of success is so close you can taste it now, motivating you to push harder to improve your status at work. But your sense of integrity prevents you from considering easy shortcuts to fame or fortune. You are willing to invest blood, sweat and tears to make your dreams come true.

Capricorn (Dec.21-Jan19)

While you may not realize the impact you have on others, everything you say packs an extra punch today. Your whispers might sound like shouts and your personal opinions could come across like fire-and-brimstone preaching. Fortunately, the Moon's presence in your sign amplifies your sensitivity, making it easier to empathize with others.

Aquarius (Jan 20-Feb.18)

You don't want people to know your thoughts today because you're afraid of showing your vulnerability. You worry that others may try to manipulate your behavior if they can play with your emotions. Additionally, you're concerned that once you start talking from your heart, you won't be able to monitor your words.

Pisces (Feb.19-Mar.20)

You get to lean on your social network today as your comrades happily rush to rally around you. Thankfully, a support team doesn't have to be mobilized now, since that type of intervention isn't necessary. Instead, you are being offered the quiet reassurance that you're not alone. Just as fish swim in schools, you know that all is well when your tribe is moving in harmony with you.
