Outlook Horoscope

Aries (Mar. 22-Apr.20)

Oct 2, 2019 - You'll feel forceful today, so use this energy to plow through any projects and get ahead in the game. You're definitely the ruler of everything you come in contact with. But even good rulers can be overthrown. People don't like arrogant leaders. Don't assume that someone is wrong just because he or she doesn't agree with your point of view.

Taurus (Apr.21-May 20)

Oct 2, 2019 - You can get many things accomplished today. The energy is very high intensity. Be careful about manipulating others. No one appreciates being ordered about, so be tactful. Try not to put on a show of superior knowledge. People will resent you for it even if your intentions are good (and you're right).

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Oct 2, 2019 - Take control of your decisions today. People might tell you what direction to take and what choice is best for you, but ultimately you're the one who knows best. Stop looking to others for guidance about your life and start finding the solutions within you. You already know the answers. You have the map you need tucked away in your pocket. Use it.

Cancer (June 21-July 20)

Oct 2, 2019 - You're likely to have some intense experiences today. So what else is new? More people are receptive to your deep, investigative nature and they want to join you in your search. Collaborate with people at this layer of intensity and form strong bonds that will last long after the energy of the day is gone.

Leo (July 21-Aug. 21)

Oct 2, 2019 - You have a tremendous amount of physical vitality today, so use it constructively. Listen more closely to the things around you - the people, music, words, and even the birds. You'll pick up the deeper meanings in these sounds today and feel them resonate in the core of your being. Embrace a feeling of oneness with the people and places around you.

Virgo (Aug. 22-Sep 22)

Oct 2, 2019 - There are important lessons to learn today, so listen closely. You may have been thinking other people should grow up. Even if you haven't spoken those words to them directly, you've thought them to yourself. Understand now that perhaps you're the one who needs to do a little growing. Don't write people off so quickly. There's something important to learn from everyone.

Libra (Sep 23-Oct. 22)

Oct 2, 2019 - Today seems to have a rather aggressive atmosphere. Things may heat up quite a bit, so be prepared for blasts of intense energy coming at you from others. If you're the one dishing it out, make sure you're prepared to receive it right back. You're much more sensitive than you look.

Scorpio (Oct.23-Nov.22)

Oct 2, 2019 - Forcefulness may not be a usual part of your nature, but if there is a day in which you feel comfortable throwing your weight around, today is it. Enough is enough. Take control of your actions and responsibility for the consequences. Use this day to build your confidence and act assuredly in all your dealings. You either want it or you don't.

Sagittarius (Nov.23-Dec.20)

Oct 2, 2019 - You have a great deal of power today, so use it wisely. No one likes a bully. Don't resort to grade-school tactics. Create friends, not enemies. Use your strength and leadership skills to help others instead of arguing with them. Try not to rock the boat with a loved one. Things could get pretty heated and the volcano might erupt.

Capricorn (Dec.21-Jan.19)

Oct 2, 2019 - Dive deep into yourself today. Bring more of your spirit into your universe. Realize that if you stay focused on one topic for just a little bit longer, you can extract another bit of knowledge. Go deeper today instead of just floating about on the surface. You'll be richly rewarded by what you discover. An off-the-cuff comment can lead to an amazing conversation.

Aquarius (Jan 20-Feb.18)

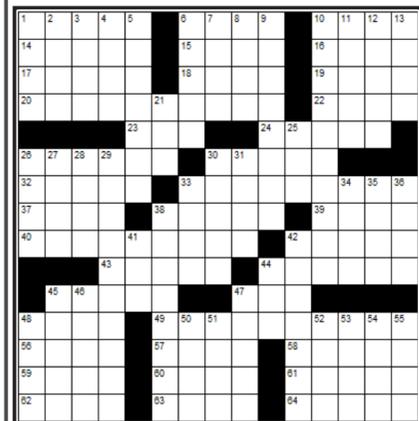

Oct 2, 2019 - Your words have tremendous impact today, so think before you speak. It's easy to hurt others' feelings if you don't take them into account. Try to be careful in any phone conversation and always verify that you've made yourself clear, especially when giving directions. Go deeper today instead of just floating about on the surface.

Pisces (Feb.19-Mar.20)

Oct 2, 2019 - If you need to do any serious investigative work, today's the day for it. Your powers of concentration are stronger than normal and you're more interested in what lies below the surface. If you suspect another person's actions or motives, this would be a good day to call him or her on it. Make sure that you're both being honest.
