Outlook Horoscope

Aries (Mar. 22-Apr.20)

Aries You want to share your inner process with your friends today, but your feelings don't seem to fit into words. You might be at a loss, not knowing where to start or how you will make your point once you begin talking. Thankfully, you are not making a formal presentation like you would at school or at work.

Cancer (June 21-July 20)

Cancer You may be visibly relieved when you accept the fact that you're not required to know everything about everything. Fortunately, there is plenty of valuable information at your disposal today, and it's up to you to put it to good use. However, discerning the truth is a complicated task now. Instead of trying to play the role of gatekeeper, just remain open to the data you receive.

Libra (Sep 23-Oct. 22)

Libra Although you may be on a creative roll, it's a struggle to make something that has lasting value now. However, you can easily apply your clever self-expression toward fun and games. Just be certain that you're not overlooking an obligation that will resurface later to wreak havoc on your day.

Capricorn (Dec.21-Jan19)

Capricorn You don't like it when the sand beneath your feet begins to shift. It makes you feel extremely uncomfortable because you need a stable foundation upon which to build your home and your life. The best way to navigate change is to expand your knowledge base. Learning about other countries and cultures brings you a wider perspective to reframe your current view of the world.

Taurus (Apr.21-May 20)

Taurus Your fantasies are like carrots that dangle at the end of a stick. You are eager to grab one but they remain just out of reach. If your heart is set on actualizing your dreams today, you might end up disappointed. But you can find pleasure in every experience if you readjust your thinking and embrace the notion that the journey is more important than the destination.

Leo (July 21-Aug. 21)

Leo Your self-esteem seems dependent on what others think of you, but the real problem is you could be reading people incorrectly today. If you are falling short of your own expectations now, you might jump to a conclusion based on your assumption that everyone is thinking less of you.

Scorpio (Oct.23-Nov.22)

Scorpio Idealizing your spouse, lover or friend can lead to an identity crisis today because sooner or later, you're going to feel let down. Nevertheless, you may be combatting your current tendency to turn a good thing into something great. The real magic comes from seeing the world as it is, rather than how you want it to be.

Aquarius (Jan 20-Feb.18)

Aquarius You're looking ahead with great anticipation while still feeling overwhelmed with your current responsibilities. You aren't thrilled that your coworkers are placing such high expectations on your contribution. You don't think you can live up to their lofty demands. Unfortunately, your worries about your performance will take their toll, so you must break the vicious cycle before negative effects.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Gemini Your long-term goals remain unchanged, but your attitude about them is shifting now. You might be losing interest in your chosen profession, but it's unwise to make any major alterations in your life path at this time. Keep in mind your dilemma is likely self-manufactured and you are the one you must please. Fortunately, you have more time than you think to create a new future.

Virgo (Aug. 22-Sep 22)

Virgo It's tempting to slip into denial today when talking with a close friend or relative. In fact, it's challenging to stick to the facts now, especially when you are conjuring up vivid fantasies. Ironically, you might be convinced that your communication skills are impeccable, but you're not likely doing as well as you think. You see no reason to acknowledge a dark cloud when the silver lining is such a wonderful conversational topic.

Sagittarius (Nov.23-Dec.20)

Sagittarius Family dynamics are undergoing subtle but powerful transformations as you change gears to aim your life toward fulfilling your career objectives. However, you might miscalculate how others on the home front will respond to your shift in direction. In fact, you still may not understand all the long-term ramifications of your new plan today, but you can't back-pedal any longer.
