Taliban Receiving Foreign Funding, Sanctuary: Mohib

KABUL - National Security Advisor (NSA) Hamdullah Mohib on Tuesday claimed Taliban militants received funding, sanctuary and orders from foreign intelligence to murder and terrorise innocent Afghans. A statement from the NSA media office said Taliban militants in the name of targeting Afghanistan's international partners used to murder innocent Afghan civilians as part of their war strategy. The statement said Taliban's barbaric attacks only further isolated from the Afghan people. "Peace needs heart and a strong will that unites the nation. The Afghans want peace and will fight for it." In reaction to last night attack on Green Village camp in Kabul, Mohib prayed for the families of the victims and wished a swift recovery to those injured. "ANDSF has been at the scene securing the area and providing medical services to those injured." (Pajhwok)

EU, US, NATO, Pakistan Condemn Kabul Attack

KABUL - European Union, the US, NATO and Pakistan on Tuesday condemned last night's attack against a residential compound for international organizations. The attack claimed the lives of over a dozen people and injured more than one hundred. The European Union extended its sincere condolences to the families and friends of the victims and wished a swift recovery to those who were injured. "This attack, claimed by the Taliban, seeks to undermine current efforts to achieve durable peace for Afghanistan. Violence and the killings of civilians must stop once and for all, so peace the people of Afghanistan deserve and demand can become a reality," the EU mission in Afghanistan said in a statement. The European Union reaffirmed once again its strong commitment to standing by the Afghan people and authorities in the fight against terrorism and to support the current international efforts aiming at reaching peace in Afghanistan. Meanwhile, US ambassador to Afghanistan John R. Bass strongly condemned last night's attack on Green Village and international partners in Kabul. "Heartfelt ... (More on P4)...(8)

Afghanistan, China, Pakistan trilateral meet on Saturday

Afghanistan, China and Pakistan will hold a trilateral meeting over the weekend in Islamabad on Saturday, sources said Tuesday.

KABUL - Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Xi and Afghan Foreign Minister Salahuiddin Rabbani will travel to Pakistan for the Sept. 7 huddle.

The Pakistani side will be led by Foreign Minister Shah Mehmood Qureshi. Expanding CPEC to Afghanistan is also on the agenda besides consultations and review on progress on Afghan Peace Process. Pakistan and China's role in Afghanistan's development will also be discussed. (Pajhwok)

16 Taliban Killed, 13 Wounded in Kandahar Airstrike

KANDAHAR CITY - Sixteen Taliban militants have been killed and another 13 wounded in a foreign forces airstrike in Shah Walikot district of southern Kundahar province, an official said on Tuesday.

Baheer Ahmadi, the governor's spokesman told Pajhwok Afghan News militants had planned to carry out attacks on security check-posts in Baghdara area of the district late on Monday night. He said the militants were on way to attack security check-points but they were targeted by airstrike before reaching to their goal. He said 16 Taliban militants were killed and 13 others wounded in the attack. The Taliban have not yet commented in this regard. (Pajhwok)

Ex-Mps Prioritise Peace Over Elections

KABUL - The assembly of former members of parliament on Monday expressed deep concerns over current security situation in the country and stressed the need for the establishment of peace instead of going for elections.

Presidential elections are scheduled for September 28 with 17 candidates have already launched their election campaign across the country. Two days back, sensitive materials had reached to some provinces.

On the other hand, 9th round of US-Taliban talks ended on Sunday but without signing final deal. Homayun Homyun, the assembly chief, told a press conference in Kabul: "Peace should be given priority, we will be unable to hold country-wide elections, conduct of polls and its result would bring crisis because nation-wide and transparent conduct of election is very difficult in current situation." Responding to a question, he said: "We have yet to join a presidential team, because the situation is not suitable for presidential elections and we will decide to support a presidential team appropriate situation is provided with national and international guarantees for free and fair polls."
