NATO Won't Support Any Parallel Govt.: Campbell

KABUL - NATO Resolute Support Mission and United States Forces commander Gen. John Campbell on Sunday said the alliance would not support any parallel government or movement in Afghanistan.

Speaking at a press conference here, Gen. Campbell congratulated the Afghans in advance on the religious festival of Eidul Adha and said the Afghan national forces with all their resources would provide security to the countrymen during the festival.

He said the unity government in Afghanistan had successfully completed its one year. "I am proud of myself for working with President Ashraf Ghani and Chief Executive Officer Abdullah Abdullah as leaders of the unity government." Campbell said the unity government faced a number of challenges and the Kabul administration was taking measures to cope with the challenges and threats. He said the Resolute Support Mission was not supporting any parallel government or ... (More on P4)...(1)
